

HERE WE GROW BRINGS YOU OUR 1ST:

The Village Tree (TVT) founder, Cecelia Rich works tirelessly to help our community reach its full potential by offering an urban oasis, empowering information, and an approachable attitude, while sharing her love for and experience in the art of urban gardening.

In 2018 Cecelia took a step at correcting blight in our city by acquiring an abandoned lot and turning it into a safe space for community members to gather, learn about gardening, receive produce, and share meals. It has grown, and will continue to grow, as a redesign and upcoming additions will allow more produce to be grown and made accessible to the community.

Located on the Westside of Wilmington, TVT Garden has 11 raised beds, a tool shed, a deck/stage area, and barbeque grills with lots of helping hands and smiling faces during the growing season.
